Hoshizaki IM-65WPE Cube model is a self-contained water cooled ice maker producing up to 62 kg of cube ice per 24 hours.

Hoshizaki recommends that the water-cooled condenser should be connected to a closed circuit recirculating type cooling systemutilizing a tower, water chiller or similar. Water make up should be via a ball valve/break tank arrangement. Whilst connecting a water-cooled condenser to a mains water (potable) supply will not affect the performance of the machine, it will most certainly cause high water use and waste of a valuable resource that is not recommended. It is likely that the connection of such units to the mains water supply may be a contravention of local water authority by-laws.
